A. Background

This instruction sheet provides guidelines for the use of the heading Interviews, as well as for the use of the free-floating subdivision --Interviews. The free-floating subdivision --Interviews is used as a form subdivision under headings for classes of persons, ethnic groups, names of individual corporate bodies, and names of individual persons, including literary authors, for transcripts of what was said during the course of interviews or conversations with one or more persons on one or more occasions. The free-floating subdivision --Interviews is used as a topical subdivision under the same types of headings for works about those interviews.

LC practice: As stated in H 1075, LC catalogers will no longer use form subdivisions. Instead assign an appropriate term or terms from Library of Congress Genre/Form Terms (LCGFT), e.g. Interviews. To replace a form subdivision that includes a demographic group, also assign Library of Congress Demographic Groups Terms (LCDGT) to bring out the audience of the resource being cataloged, e.g. German speakers or Arabic, Students of.

For guidelines on bio-bibliography, see H 1328. For guidelines on biography, see H 1330. For guidelines on diaries, see H 1538. For guidelines on personal narratives of wars or disasters, see H 1928. For guidelines on genealogy and family histories, see H 1631.

C. Definitions

Interviews: transcripts of what was said during the course of interviews or conversations with one or more persons on one or more occasions.

D. The heading Interviews

Assign the heading Interviews to general collections of interviews with persons from a wide variety of groups or with undesignated backgrounds.

Example:

Title: Talks with prominent Americans.
   650 #0 $a Interviews $z United States.

E. --Interviews as a form subdivision

E.1. Classes of persons or ethnic groups

Assign a heading or headings of the type [class of persons]--Interviews or [ethnic group]--Interviews to works consisting of interviews with one or more persons from specific fields or ethnic groups.

Examples:

   650 #0 $a African Americans $v Interviews.
   650 #0 $a Children of divorced parents $z United States $v Interviews.
   650 #0 $a Scientists $z Hungary $v Interviews.
   650 #0 $a Terminally ill $z Sweden $v Interviews.
   610 10 $a United States. $b Navy $x Surgeons $v Interviews.

LC practice:

   650 #0 $a Children of divorced parents $z United States.
   655 #7 $a Interviews. $2 lcgft

Exception: If the heading representing the special class of persons does not exist and it is not possible to establish such a heading, use --Interviews under the heading for the appropriate field or discipline. In such situations the subdivision is not free floating and must be established. An example of a work requiring such treatment would be a collection of interviews with several persons involved in the field of dance, including dancers, choreographers, impresarios, composers, costume designers, patrons, etc.

Also use the subdivision --Interviews under names of individual corporate bodies, including performing groups, for collections of interviews with persons associated with the corporate body, for example, Minnesota Vikings (Football team)--Interviews; Guarneri Quartet--Interviews. Use more specific subdivisions representing classes of persons, for example, --Employees or --Presidents, under the corporate body heading, if appropriate.

LC practice: Assign the subject term for the class of persons, ethnic group, or corporate bodies if the group is a focus of the topic. If no appropriate class of persons exists, use the heading for the field or discipline. Also assign LCGFT appropriate to the form and/or genre of the resource in hand, e.g. LCGFT Interviews or the more specific term.

E.2. Individual persons

Use the free-floating subdivision --Interviews under names of individual persons, including literary authors, for works consisting of interviews with them.

LC practice: Assign the subject term for individual person. Also assign LCGFT appropriate to the form and/or genre of the resource in hand, e.g. LCGFT Interviews or the more specific term.
